Looks good. You think people will contain themselves through the bond convo if it's first? Sure you don't want to have the superintendent convo first?

Hi everyone,

Emilio just gave me a quick call with suggestions about modifying today's LAAC meeting based on the following:

* Frances and Jose cancelled due to a leadership meeting with the District
* We picked a Superintendent

Here's my recap of next steps based on our conversation:

1. Jennie and I will email the LAAC with an update that will let them know:
    a. Austin was selected and include CCSA and the LAAC's statements.
    b. Frances and Jose had to cancel because of a leadership meeting with the new Superintendent scheduled for today.
    c. We are proceeding with our meeting, and will focus much of the conversation on debriefing the Superintendent decision and implications for the LAAC.
    d. We are asking folks to arrive by 2:30pm instead of 2:00pm now and if possible, to plan to stay afterward for refreshments and to volunteer.
2. We will update the calendar invite.
3. We will update the actual meeting agenda to reflect the following:
    a. Start time of 2:30pm
    b. Introduction and framing
    c. Bond conversation starts as planned at 2:45pm

with Ebony and a fishbowl exercise led by Cristina

d. Conversation regarding the Superintendent

i. Context from Jed regarding Austin Buetner

ii. Whip Arounds:

1. What relationships do you or folks you know have with Austin? What do you know about him from those relationships that might help us in this work?
2. What have past relationships with the Superintendent looked like for the charter community? What worked and what didn't work? How should we leverage those learnings to approach this opportunity with Superintendent Beutner?

iii. Facilities and Authorizing/Oversight Breakouts: Emilio will lead authorizing conversation, Cristina will lead facilities conversation. CCSA staff will split up and take notes.

1. Knowing that Ref's hearing is pushed back to July 23 and that a new Superintendent is starting on May 14, what priorities rise to the top of our list?
2. What should we present to him as highest urgency and priority?
3. How does this Superintendent selection change anything about how we approach our priorities

iv. Reconvene and Briefly Share Out

e. Wrap Up/CCSA Update

i. Volunteer shift Commitments for leaders and sending emails to network

Please let me know if we are missing anything. If not, Jennie and I will run with this.

Thank you both!

Cassy
